

Application to update your BYID Card

The LCBO has introduced a new, enhanced BYID Card. The new card has a magnetic stripe (magstripe) that will be swiped at LCBO stores when a cardholder is challenged for proof of age photo ID. The magstripe contains an LCBO-specific code that confirms that the card is a valid, LCBO-issued card. The Magstripe contains no personal information about the cardholder or any information that could be linked to the cardholder.

All earlier versions of the BYID Card (without the magnetic stripe) will be phased out by May 23, 2011.

Updating your card is easy. Visit any LCBO store, or submit your application and payment by mail.
