RCABERNET SAUVIGNON 2017

California
(V Vines)

13181 (XD) 750 mL $19.95 ✂

TASTING NOTE: This is a balanced, plush, bold Cabernet that hits all the marks. There's a complex array of aromas and flavours to indulge in, including blueberry, blackcurrant, bramble, baking spice, mocha and graphite. Displaying great tension and backbone, this has the oomph for big dishes such as lamb shanks or venison. (Vintages panel, July 2019)

LUCIANO ARDUINI CLASSICO SUPERIORE VALPOLICELLA RIPASSO 2017

DOC, Veneto, Italy

12407 (D) 750 mL $20.95 ✂

TASTING NOTE: (Translated from the Italian) Extraordinary strong taste of fruits with perfect smoothness, as well as full fragrance and freshness, in its deep colour that fills up the glass completely. Extraordinary balance among the three tones of taste, with acidity and strong tannin wrapped in the grapes' softness. Incredible concentration and production process of exceptional and clear transformation. Bravo! Score: 98 (Luca Maroni, lucamaroni.com, 2020)

JESSICA

My passion for education led to my completion of French and Italian Wine Scholar and WSET (Wine and Spirit Education Trust) Level 3 programs. I also completed the Prud'homme Level 2 Beer Certification at Steam Whistle. (Who doesn't like Pilsner and baseball?) I enjoy sharing this knowledge with my customers in order to provide them with the best help possible. I'm a great admirer of Piedmont and their dedication to crafting wines of high quality, great longevity and excellent complexity."

VINO ROSSO 2016

COLD CALL

When temperatures dip, these four fine reds are just the thing for wintry fare or a cozy night by the fire.

Ontario's winter wonderland renews our appreciation for life's heartwarming pleasures: curling up next to a roaring fire with a good book, making merry with friends, indulging in our favourite comfort foods, and of course, sipping a glass of red wine. These four locally grown reds bring savouring the season even closer to home.

PRODUCT OF CANADA/PRODUIT DU CANADA

There's just something about winter in Ontario that makes a glass of red wine seem extra special. Sure, there's the fact that reds are often served less chilled than most non-red wines, but it's more than that. Perhaps it's the gravitas and complexity of a red wine, which suits the mood of the season. Perhaps it's the heft and mouthfeel of the tannins. Perhaps it's that red wines go so beautifully with hearty, wintry foods. Most likely, it's a bit of all these things combined.

Ontario is blessed with a cool climate that's perfect for the finest and most elegant red wines, interspersed with warmer vineyard sites ideal for bigger, bolder reds. Perhaps the most elegant of all red wines is Pinot Noir. So tricky to grow and vinify, the grape actually thrives here and produces exceptionally complex, delicately nuanced (yet substantially flavourful) wines with an almost magical ability to convey the limestone mineral of places like Niagara Escarpment, where Flat Rock grows theirs. Such wines can be wonderful partners for wintry foods, particularly roasts, stews, semi-soft cheeses, sautéed mushrooms and roasted root vegetables.

Baco Noir is a variety so suited to certain Ontario vineyards that it's grown here more than anywhere else. It makes generously fruity, savoury-spicy wines that can take on lovely smoky layers when matured in oak, as the Speck brothers and their team at Henry of Pelham do for 13 months with their Reserve bottling. A nicely oaked Baco can be revelatory with pasta in rich tomato sauce, blackened steaks, caramelized vegetables, roast leg of lamb or venison, or smoked cheeses.

Speaking of Baco, Coffin Ridge uses it along with Maréchal Foch, Pinot Noir and Merlot to make their Back From the Dead Red: a spicy, structured wine with plenty of vibrant, food-friendly acidity and impressive tannin structure. This is a great match for the woody flavours of venison, bison, wild mushrooms or bloomy cheeses, or for classic comfort foods such as meaty stews, rosemary roast pork or wood-fired pizza.

Foreign Affair makes their red blend, The Conspiracy, from Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Petit Verdot – but with a twist. Embracing the ripasso method of northern Italy, they use dried grapes to impart extra complexity and depth before ageing the wine for 10 months in oak barrels. The resulting interplay of fresh and dried berry fruit, spice and leather go fantastically well with hearty stews, aged cheeses, baked pasta or rich risotto.

the finer points

FLAT ROCK PINOT NOIR VQA Niagara Escarpment

“As we move into the season of comfort foods like roasted vegetables, rich stews and savoury roasts and casseroles, Pinot Noir has its chance to really shine. With its velvety tannins and focused fruit flavours and aromas, Pinot Noir is arguably the most versatile red wine to pair with and enhance the experience of such warm and comforting dishes. Save a splash or two for the perfect red wine reduction to complement your favourite seasonal dinner.” – Dave Sheppard, winemaker

HENRY OF PELHAM SPECK FAMILY RESERVE BACO NOIR 🍁
VQA Ontario

Baco Noir is grown virtually exclusively in Canada, and Henry of Pelham is home to some of the very best expressions. This example is concentrated and generously flavoured, with dancing raspberry and blackberries supported by herbs, smoke, earth, beet, and oak spice. This wants big meaty meals; think barbecued flank steak, bison burgers or lamb kebabs.

TASTING NOTE: Compared to its catalog companion, Amayna, this sauvignon is grown in younger vineyards, closer to the sea; the most notable difference, however, is that it's not clone 242 like Amayna, but rather clone 1, which tends to give rise to very energetic sauvignons full of rich acidity. AGAMY LOUIS TETE LES PETITES PIERRES RÉGNIÉ 2018

NEW

TASTING NOTE: Sitting at a higher elevation than most Beaujolais vineyards, those of Régnié are known for producing elegant, easygoing wines with bright acidity. This wine is harvested by hand and offers juicy cherry fruit and smoky undertones. An outstanding value for Beaujolais cru of this quality, it'll impress through 2021 with braised chicken thighs or duck. (Vintage panel, April 2019)

Corbières is the largest appellation within the Languedoc and the fourth-largest in all of France. The red wines produced there exhibit complex blackberry and pepper notes with a mix of garrigue and herbs such as thyme, rosemary, basil and sage. From a small family estate within Corbières, this wine is a blend of 60% Syrah with 40% Grenache and is made in a big, burly style that goes well with grilled mutton or pork.

BARON LOUIS LIRAC 2015

TASTING NOTE: The rich, tannic 2015 Lirac Baron Louis spent a year in barrel, a year in tank and a year in bottle prior to release. It offers up scents of leather, cedar and vanilla, but it balances out the oak with dark fruit notes of cola, plum and spice. It's full-bodied and velvety on the palate, while hints of licorice emerge on the lengthy finish. This wine has clearly emerged as one of the top Liracs. Drink date: 2019-2025. More Ontario to Love

Introducing an exciting new collection of special limited-release Ontario wines.

Discover the styles Ontario does best, explore the offerings of top local winemakers and take advantage of great values in our special Ontario wine boutiques in select stores. We're excited to introduce this special limited-availability collection of new, small-lot and unique wines from some of our favourite producers – and yours. Check them out in the LCBO Ontario wines section.

STYLE SPOTLIGHT

In the right conditions, Syrah can perform beautifully in Ontario. Such conditions include perfectly suited growing sites like the ones from which Peninsula Ridge and Creekside source their grapes. Add to that the ideal 2016 vintage, and you get gorgeous wines such as these spicy, substantial yet elegant Syrahs that will be spectacular with autumn fare.

PENINSULA RIDGE RESERVE SYRAH 2016

VQA Niagara Peninsula
Medium-bodied & Fruity
230896 (XD)
750 mL $24.95

CREEKSIDE ICONOCLAST SYRAH 2016

WINERY FOCUS

Pinot Noir and Chardonnay specialist Thomas Bachelder has been making stunning wines under his namesake label for 10 years. These two were crafted from fruit grown by the skillful team of Bachelder and grower Craig Wismer, whose family vineyards are among the most venerated in Niagara. Either of these wines is sure to elevate any holiday dinner.

BACHELDER WISMER- FOXCROFT N. 2 CHARDONNAY 2015

VQA Twenty Mile Bench,
Niagara Escarpment
Full-bodied & Rich
547299 (XD)

BACHELDER WISMER- PARKE VINEYARD PINOT NOIR 2017

VQA Twenty Mile Bench,
Niagara Escarpment
Medium-bodied & Fruity
520379 (XD)
750 mL $44.95

DEALS TO DISCOVER

This wine brings together equal parts Gamay and Pinot Noir and embraces the ripasso technique to give that extra hug of depth and flavour. With its evocations of strawberry and spices, it's perfect for an intimate dinner, or just a cuddle on the couch, with that special someone. And given the friendly price, your wallet won't be feeling the squeeze.

THE FOREIGN AFFAIR THE EMBRACE 2017

VQA Niagara Peninsula
Light-bodied & Fruity
538041 (XD)
750 mL $16.95

STANDOUT SELECTIONS

Maturing a Cabernet Sauvignon in oak not only rounds out the tannins, it can also add wonderful spicy and smoky notes. This wine was aged 18 months in French and Hungarian oak barrels and delivers ripe blackberry, dark spice, leather and smoke. It'll go swimmingly with steak and mushrooms.

REIF RESERVE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2015

VQA Niagara Peninsula
Medium-bodied & Fruity
304162 (XD)
750 mL $34.95

with Supérieur enjoyment

Bordeaux's 2015 is a vintage of noted quality, and though the top châteaux (always) draw the lion's share of attention "... the real joy in 2015 is in the mid and lower-tier, where the best wines are gorgeous and also remain affordable for mere mortals" (Antonio Galloni, vinous.com, Feb. 26, 2018). The notes of red and black fruit, spicy licorice, and vanilla in the Les Palues deliciously second Antonio's assessment.
